

House Resolution No. 3020

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives proudly pause to recognize those special young people who have exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in state government; and

Whereas, Sarah Marie Henderson, a student at the University of Missouri-Columbia, has distinguished herself as an Intern for the Honorable Therese Sander, State Representative from District No. 22; and

Whereas, Sarah Henderson joined the staff of Representative Sander for the First Regular Session of the Ninety-third General Assembly as part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the state capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Sarah Henderson has experienced the opportunity to observe firsthand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, Sarah Henderson has successfully demonstrated her abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative Sander run as smoothly as possible; and

Whereas, Sarah Henderson has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Representative Sander and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of knowledge and skills acquired prior to her tenure as an Intern and a variety of visible new skills which will be of tremendous value in the job market; and

Whereas, Sarah Henderson has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her parents, Carl and Debra Henderson; and her siblings, Amanda, Katherine, and Austin:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, hereby proudly join the Honorable Therese Sander in commending Sarah Henderson for her many important contributions to our State Legislature during the current session, and further extend to her our very best wishes for continued success and happiness in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Sarah Marie Henderson, as a measure of our deep gratitude.
